

Half day TRAINING program: 'PUBLISHING WITH IMPACT'
Thursday 23 November, APSR Congress 2017, Sydney, Australia

| Time                  | How                                 | What  | By whom   | What to expect?  |
|-----------------------|-------------------------------------|---|---|--|
| 12.15-12.30 pm | Welcome + Introduction10-15 min | Modern-day research publishing   | Prof Paul ReynoldsCo-Editor in ChiefRESPIROLOGYFacilitator      | Introducing the program: Publishing clinical research with impact relies on a comprehensive approach to research performance, publication and promotion.  |
| 12.30-1pm      | Masterclass30 min        | Perspective:Getting started - writing your CV and grant applications                              | Prof Andrew BushPast Editor in ChiefTHORAX                                 | Insight by the expert:Views on how to juggle clinical work and research to make impact in a meaningful way and advice on how to set yourself up for success.  |
| 1-1.45pm       | Workshop45 min           | Training:Academic writing with impactEnhance your success with manuscript submission & review | Dr Anke van EekelenDr Lieve BultynckEditorial OfficeRESPIROLOGY | Tips on topics:- general manuscript layout & function,- writing style & plagiarism prevention,- reporting guidelines for clinical studies,- journal selection & publication ethics requirements |
| 1.45-2pm       | Afternoon Tea15 min             |   |   |  |
| 2-2.30pm       | Masterclass30 min        | Perspective:International peer review for research quality and value assessment                   | Prof Philip BardinCo-Editor in ChiefRESPIROLOGY                            | Insight by the expert:How to achieve quality control and peer assessment of significance of new research in science publishing? Examples from 2 international peer review journals                          |
| 2.30-3pm       | Masterclass30 min        | Perspective:Current trends in research publishing and promotion                                   | Julia Ballard WILEYSenior Journal Publishing Manager                           | Insight by the expert:Publication models (Green vs Gold Open Access), ORCID, PUBLONS and other new online platforms for promotion of research & researcher  |
| 3-3.30pm       | Panel discussion30 min   | The reality of achieving impact in clinical research   | Facilitator + panel of all speakers  | Q&amp;A session on what is possible and appears required nowadays for researchers to make an impact in medical science and clinical practice  |

4pm – start of Conference Welcome Reception