Continuing on, we drive south through the rolling countryside, passing through Strathalbyn and Willunga, known for its bohemian vibe and finally arrive at Softfoot Farm. Swagman Country Dining specialises in uses native bush spices and berries as part of their culinary offerings.

After lunch we drive down the coast a little to Victor Harbor. This seaside town has plenty on offer, with the Whale Centre and Museum, Granite Island popular for its Fairy Penguins, or take a ride on the horse-drawn tram across to Granite Island.
