

ISHR / CSANZ Student Investigator Prizes

Student registrants can be considered for oral (may include free communication), mini-oral and/or poster presentation prizes in this category.

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

1. Applicants must be an undergraduate student (including medical student, bio/science honours student) OR a non-medical graduate student (ie PhD, Masters), involved in research activity. Graduates of medical or other equivalent clinical degrees who are undertaking higher degrees are not eligible.
2. Applicants must be a current ISHR Student financial member.
3. The applicant must be the first and presenting author on the abstract.
4. The applicant must have made a significant contribution to the concept and execution of the work being presented.
5. The work must be substantially new and must NOT have been previously presented at a Cardiac Society/ISHR Annual Scientific Meeting.
6. A previous winner in any specific Student Investigator Prize category is ineligible to compete in the same category.
7. An applicant may not compete for an ISHR Student Investigator Prize and a Ralph Reader Prize or CSANZ ASM Prize (and will be asked to choose which they would like to be shortlisted for if initially deemed competitive in more than one prize).
8. Prizes are awarded by a panel of judges but will only be awarded if a contribution is considered to be of sufficient merit.
9. The judges' decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
