Privacy statement & release

The Australasian Sonographers Association (ASA) protects the privacy and security of information provided by you. We are bound by the privacy principles contained in the Privacy Act 1988 as amended from time to time.

ASA collects and stores your personal information for the purposes of providing membership services, education and training programs. For more information on our privacy policy, visit www.sonographers.org.

By completing the online registration form for the ASA2018 Sydney conference, you agree to the use of your personal information by the ASA to process your registration; to contact you about our products and services; and for internal purposes. As is standard industry practice, we provide conference delegate information to sponsors and exhibitors. Should you wish to opt out of this, please select the privacy required tick box on the online registration site.

In registering for the ASA conference, registrants grant permission to ASA, its agents and others working under its authority, to take and to have full and free use of video and photographs containing their image/likeness. It is understood these images may be used for promotional, news, on-line/multimedia, research and/or educational purposes by and for ASA. Registrants agree that they are not entitled to remuneration, residuals, royalties or any other payment from ASA in respect of their image/likeness or its use. Registrants release, discharge, and hold harmless, ASA and its agents from any and all claims, demands or causes of actions that they may hereafter have by reason of anything contained in the photographs or video. Should a registrant not agree to the above image release, they must advise ASA by emailing sonographersconference@tcc.co.nz
