

WORLD POTATO CONGRESS

World Potato Congress Adelaide 2024 - Calling for abstracts for presentations and posters.

The Conference Organising Committee invites abstract submissions for oral and poster presentations at the World Potato Congress Adelaide June 23-26, 2024.

Abstracts that are accepted by the Conference Organising Committee will be subject to peer review. The selection criteria include relevance to the conference theme, accuracy and originality of ideas, significance of the contribution, and quality of presentation.

All accepted papers will be published in the conference proceedings and presented during the technical sessions. The presenting authors are required to register, pay, and attend the conference.

“Old world meets new world” is the overall Congress theme for the World Potato Congress Adelaide 2024.”

The following themes will be addressed over the five-day conference program:

Climate change & Key Adaption	Innovative practises in disease control	The diploid seed revolution	Novel seed production Strategies
Strategies for regenerative agriculture	Human health & nutrition	Potato Storage technology	What potato consumers what - planning for the future
Managing food waste	Future of soil nutrition for sustainable potato production	Soil Health and potato production	Integrated Pest Management
Potato genetics & future trends	Food Security – the role of the potato	Marketing Potatoes to the next generation	Global Trade Issues and opportunities
Success stories of potatoes in developing nations	Global Yield Trends	Overview of World Potato Production	Potato genetics & future trends

Important Date:

Abstracts must be submitted by 31 March 2024.